OFFENDERS SERVED:

Most participating counties serve both Adult and Juvenile populations. Following is reported data from 2007-2008 FY:

- Of the 53,346 adults being served during the fiscal year, 27,681 or 51% were felons;
- Of the 11,821 juveniles being served, 4,800 or 40% were target population offenders.

The Department's established target group for adult community corrections programs is non-violent felony offenders sentenced to a term of four years or less. The target group for juvenile community corrections programs is non-violent youthful offenders who have been adjudicated delinquent for offenses that, if committed by an adult, would be a felony.

FISCAL YEAR 2006:

Use of Evidence Based Practices language was incorporated in Community Corrections contracts.

FISCAL YEAR 2008:

- Approximately $29.2 Million in IDOC grants were provided;
- $4 Million was allocated for the Community Transition Program;
- An additional 39.3 Million was generated in user fees and county matching dollars across 72 counties for Community Corrections totaling $72.6 Million.

PARTICIPANTS:

Steady growth shows an increase in the number of participating counties from 19 in 1986-87 FY to 72 for the 2007-08 FY with two additional counties applying in 08-09 FY.
